

TEACHER OF COMPUTING PERMANENT

SALARY: TMS1 (£30,000) ~ UPR3 (£46,525) FTE

For the right candidate an addition TLR of £4,430 could be considered

REQUIRED FOR SEPTEMBER 2024 or BEFORE

The Buckingham School's vision is Success for All; success for our students, our staff and our community. By joining us, you will be part of an establishment that seeks to develop individuals holistically, through our seven school virtues, where personal responsibility and self-improvement underpin all that we do. We are a student-centered school that recognises that our staff have the authority, expertise and passion to bring our vision to life.

Due to the school's expansion and growth in student numbers, we seek to appoint an ambitious, enthusiastic and highly motivated Teacher in Computing. Whilst having a real passion for the subject, we are looking for an innovative and committed classroom practitioner who can teach exceptional Computing across Key Stages 3 and 4 as well as the experience and drive to continually improve the subject. We are looking for the right candidate to raise standards of student attainment and achievement, monitor and support student progress and hold high expectations of themselves, their team and their students.

This is an exciting period to join The Buckingham School; we have just completed 2.5 million pounds of renovation work within the school, with more remodelling and renovation of the school premises planned in the near future. We have seen steady improvement in all areas of the school over the past three years and we will continue in our quest to become the community school of choice within the locality. We are ambitious, oversubscribed and our students are fantastic to work with.

Applications are welcome from ECTs as well as experienced teachers. We have a proven track record of support and development and an excellent ECT package is available.

In return, we will offer you:

- A professional, supportive and experienced Team
- A personalised approach to Continuing Professional Development
- A role in a school that has a clear vision
- The opportunity to work with students who possess excellent attitudes to learning
- A learning environment that is ambitious, collaborative and forward-thinking

Please access the full job description, application form and self-declaration form from the school's website www.buckinghamsschool.org. Completed applications, giving full contact details of two recent relevant professional referees (one of which is your current employer) to: Mr Andy McGinnes, Headteacher, The Buckingham School, London Road, Buckingham, MK18 1AT or email to emansfield@buckinghamsschool.org

Closing Date for Applications: 9am, Thursday 18th April 2024

We reserve the right to close this vacancy early for a suitable candidate, therefore if you are interested in this role please submit your application as early as possible.

Interview Date: W/C 22nd April 2024

Please note that CVs will not be accepted for any posts based in the school

The Buckingham School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children. Applicants must be willing to undergo child protection screening appropriate to the post, including checks with past employers, Disclosure & Barring Service and online screening in line with the 'Keeping Children Safe in Education' act.
